This edition of the Strandloper is likely to be my last as Editor, and I have had the pleasure of filling this role since 2017. My first article in the Strandloper was in the mid-1970s and continued throughout the years: being Editor was a culmination of this participation. Sadly, too few of us contribute, probably through natural inertia, but for me, I have thoroughly enjoyed the ride and the interaction. I hope you enjoyed the journey too!

Best wishes
Ken Brown
